Attendance Expectations

Our goal is to support each of you in engaging in learning

- School starts at 7:30am
- Late to school 4 times in a quarter = Saturday Detention
- Students are to attend EVERY class assigned to them
- Documentation for excused absences
- Excessive absences will result in parent/student/administrator meetings

Safety, Kindness and Respect

- All reports of bullying or harassment will be investigated. Students have and will continue to be suspended for such behavior. Use of racist, homophobic, biased and rude language is unacceptable.
- Be kind and helpful. Support each other.
- Remember bullying and harassment are against our school rules and illegal in Massachusetts
- The bathrooms need to be safe and available for those who need to use them. We will be more heavily emphasizing discipline for those who are vaping or using them as gathering spaces
- School rules apply to games and social events too. If you engage in poor behavior at these events you will be asked to leave and not allowed to attend future events.
- For our student athletes remember there is an extra focus on your behavior as individuals and as a team.

Important Items to Consider

- Students who are medically absent will be able to take their make-up exam during the designated make-up periods or at a later date.
- If a student has an extenuating circumstance that will conflict with their scheduled exams and warrants the need to take their exams not during their designated time and location it should be pre-approved by a building administrator prior to exams.
- Students are expected to arrive on time for their midterm exams. If a student shows up significantly late (20+ minutes), teachers will refer the student to the office to discuss circumstances and create a plan from there. Tardies less than 20 minutes will be up to individual teacher discretion, based on the format of each midterm exam.

Happy New Year! Let's make it meaningful and fun.
